

Talent Audition Copy – Grand Jury Video

The grand jury plays an important role in the criminal justice system. It is designed to protect the rights of citizens and to ensure fair and equal treatment under the law. As a grand juror, you are now an important part of the administration of justice in our community.

In this video, you will learn about your role and responsibilities as a grand juror, including your basic function to decide if there is sufficient evidence to bring criminal charges AND your obligation to maintain the secrecy of all grand jury proceedings.

Thank you for your service. We understand that your service requires significant sacrifices. We hope it will be a rewarding experience.

Here are some things it is important for you to know: The grand jury has 23 members, selected at random from voter registration and motor vehicle records.

You must be at least 18 years old, a United States citizen, and a resident of the local jurisdiction where the grand jury is seated.

If you don't meet these qualifications, please see the jury commissioner right away
