

Casting Copy- Maryland Judiciary Expungement

Welcome to the Maryland Courts' six-part video series on expungement.

It's important for court records to be open to the public, but in certain circumstances, you may ask the court to expunge your criminal record. If the court grants your request, information about your case will be removed from court and law enforcement records.

This video examines expungement for individuals who were found guilty or pled guilty. If your case had a different outcome, see the other videos in this series. You can find your case disposition, or status, on your court paperwork. This information is also available on Case Search at mdcourts.gov/casearch

These videos cover expungement of adult court and law enforcement records only. They do not address juvenile records or records from other state agencies.

You will be learning a lot of new terms, so consider using the tip sheet and taking notes. Let's get started with a discussion about convictions that are eligible for expungement.
