To the me I used to be—before texting 988.	A la persona que solía ser—antes de enviar un mensaje de texto al 988.
When another argument with mom felt like the end of the world and school got too stressful—I felt alone.	Cuando otra discusión con mi mamá me pareció el fin del mundo y la escuela se volvió demasiado estresante—me sentí solo.
But when I texted 988, a real person texted back—someone listened without judgment.	Pero cuando envié un mensaje al 988, una persona real me respondió—alguien me escuchó sin juzgarme.
I’m still here, and I’m stronger than I thought.	Sigo aquí, y soy más fuerte de lo que pensaba.
